O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

If you do not wish to receive Communion, you are welcome to come forward to the altar rail and ask the priest when the bread is offered to you.

by dipping the wafer of bread. If you require a gluten-free wafer, please come forward to the altar rail and ask the priest.
The wine, if desired, may be taken from the common cup by drinking (placing your hand gently on the base of the chalice to guide it) or by letting it pass over your open palm.

All are welcome to receive the Holy Communion. The bread is received in the mouth and the wine in the hand.

The Celebrant continues.

The bread, broken and offered to God, is the Body of Christ.

the wine, shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins, is the Blood of Christ.

We offer ourselves to God as members of Christ's Body, for the service of others and for the furtherance of your Kingdom.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Therefore, according to his command, O Father, we give thanks to you:

Presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all;

And for your people, who now look to you in the opening of this new day.

and for all who are in need.

We make this petition through Jesus Christ, your Son, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever. Amen.

Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable to you, our Maker and Redeemer.

We remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory.

We offer to you, our Father, this bread and wine, body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

and with his Body to be broken for us.

And with his Blood to be shed for us.

and our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

and the authority of the Holy Spirit, that we may live in the power of the world to come.

The people respond.

And so, remembering his command, we do this in his memory:

The bread, broken and offered to God, is the Body of Christ.

the wine, shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins, is the Blood of Christ.

We offer ourselves to God as members of Christ's Body, for the service of others and for the furtherance of your Kingdom.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Therefore, according to his command, O Father, we give thanks to you:

Presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We offer to you, our Father, this bread and wine, body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

and with his Body to be broken for us.

And with his Blood to be shed for us.

We make this petition through Jesus Christ, your Son, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever. Amen.

Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.

You have prepared a table before me in the presence of my enemies, and you anoint my head with oil and fill my cup to the brim.

My cup overflows with good things.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Amen.

O Lord, grant us your peace.

Amen.

The Third Sunday after the Epiphany

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

give us this day our daily bread.

and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

and lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. amen.

Presider  Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People  And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Hymn

Words: Carl P. Daw Jr. (b. 1944).
Music: Resignation, American folk melody.

1. O God in whom all life begins, who births the seed to fruit;___
2. Unite in mutual ministry our minds and hands and hearts___
3. Through tears and laughter, grief and joy, enlarge our trust and care;____

be-stow your blessing on our lives; here let your love find root;____
that we may have the grace to seek the power your peace imparts;____
so bind us in community that we may risk and dare,____

Bring forth in us the Spirit's gifts of patience, joy and peace;____
So let our varied gifts combine to glorify your name;____
Be with us as we gather here to worship, sing and pray,____ deliver us from numbing fear, and grant our faith increase;____

that in all things by word and deed we may your love proclaim;____
then send us forth in power and faith to live the words we say,____

The Ministry of the Word

The Collect for the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

Presider  The Lord be with you.
People   And also with you.
Presider  Let us pray.
          O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
All      Amen.

The people sit.

The First Lesson  Isaiah 55:10–13
Reader  A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.
          As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it. For you shall go out in joy, and be led back in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle; and it shall be to the Lord for a memorial, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.
Reader  The Word of the Lord.
People  Thanks be to God.

Psalm 65:9–14
All      You visit the earth and water it abundantly;
you make it very plenteous;
the river of God is full of water.
          You prepare the grain,
for so you provide for the earth.
          You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges;
with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its increase.
          You crown the year with your goodness,
and your paths overflow with plenty.
          May the fields of the wilderness be rich for grazing,
and the hills be clothed with joy.
          May the meadows cover themselves with flocks,
and the valleys cloak themselves with grain;
let them shout for joy and sing.
The Second Lesson Romans 8:1–11

Reader A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans.

There is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to deal with sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, so that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God’s law—indeed it cannot, and those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit that dwells in you.

The Holy Gospel Matthew 13:1–9, 18–23

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. And he told them many things in parables, saying: “Listen! A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Let anyone with ears listen! Hear then the parable of the sower. When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.”

The Sermon The Right Reverend Dean E. Wolfe, Rector

The people stand with the presider.

The Nicene Creed

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

After each petition:

Deacon Gracious God,

People Hear our prayer.

After the final petition:

Presider O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

People Amen.
The Confession of Sin

Presider  Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

All    Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All    Amen.

The Peace

Presider  The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People    And also with you.

The people greet one another and then sit.

Those at home are encouraged to share the peace through the live chat or comments.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider  The Lord be with you.
People    And also with you.
Presider  Lift up your hearts.
People    We lift them to the Lord.
Presider  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People    It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Presider  It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Presider We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All
All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All
AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem

Presider Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Invitation to Communion

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The people sit.
At the Communion

Those gathered on Park Avenue receive Holy Communion on behalf of members of the St. Bart’s community who are participating via livestream.

“If a person desires to receive the Sacrament, but, by reason of extreme sickness or physical disability, is unable to eat and drink the Bread and Wine, the Celebrant is to assure that person that all the benefits of Communion are received, even though the Sacrament is not received with the mouth.”

Spiritual Communion

Those watching at home may, if they wish, say this prayer during the time of Communion.

In union, blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered at every altar of your Church where your blessed Body and Blood are offered this day, and remembering particularly my own parish and those worshiping there, I long to offer praise and thanksgiving for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption won for us by your life, death, and resurrection, for the means of grace and the hope of glory. And particularly for the blessings given me:

Here, those watching at home may add particular blessings for which they wish to give thanks.

I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, and, since I cannot at this time receive communion, I pray you to come into my heart. I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart, my soul, and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you; let me serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace. Amen.

The people stand with the presider.

The Prayer After Communion

Presider Let us pray.
All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.
